

LUMS is a world-ranked international management school, consistently amongst the UK's top four. Equal 1st in the UK for research for nearly two decades, and 1st for student satisfaction in most years, we use our expertise to inspire students on undergraduate, one-year Masters and PhD programmes. The Lancaster MBA is ranked 22nd in the world, 4th in the UK, and is in Europe's top 10 MBA programmes.

The following presentations in Athens are to be given by members of LUMS faculty. You are invited to come along to learn more about our programmes and about study and life at Lancaster, also to meet these representatives as well as recent graduates for informal discussion.
